VT Markets - 50% Welcome Deposit Bonus

Eligibility: All clients who register a live account with VT Markets.

Details: Clients who register a live account with VT Markets and complete a deposit will automatically be enrolled in this promotion. Participants will receive a 50% credit bonus on their first deposit, and a 15% credit bonus on every subsequent deposit thereafter. Credit bonuses are stackable — the more you deposit, the more you earn.

The promotion is offered by VT Markets LLC ("the Company" or "VT Markets") for the Company's clients.

Terms and Conditions:

1、 Promotion Period: This promotion is available starting from July 1, 2026.

2、 Eligibility:

a. All clients who register a live trading account with VT Markets. By opening a new account with VT Markets, clients acknowledge that they have read and agreed to comply with these terms and conditions, as well as VT Markets' general terms and conditions.

b. Clients who hold multiple trading accounts under the same name may make deposits across multiple accounts and apply for the bonus separately for each. However, the combined credit bonus held across accounts under the same name is capped at USD 20,000.

c. VT Markets reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to offer this promotion to new and existing clients. If you are unsure of your eligibility, please contact your Account Manager or reach out to info@vtmarkets.com.

d. Eligible account types: VIP, ECN, and STD accounts.

3、 Participation Rules:

a. This promotion is only available to specific clients. To participate, you must first contact your Account Manager to be enrolled in the promotion. Once successfully enrolled, the system will automatically credit the corresponding bonus to your trading account upon completion of your deposit.

b. If you wish to change your participation status at any time, you may log in to your client portal and adjust your status under the "Promotions" tab. Should you wish to join the promotion afterward, you will need to contact your Account Manager again for assistance.

4、 Credit Bonus:

a. To qualify for the 50% bonus on your first deposit, your first deposit must be at least USD 200 (or equivalent).

b. 15% on subsequent deposits — defined as any deposit after your first deposit, or the portion of your first deposit exceeding USD 1,000.

c. If your first deposit is less than USD 200 (or equivalent), you will not be eligible to claim the 50% credit bonus, and this will be treated as forfeiting the 50% bonus. Any subsequent deposits into your trading account will still receive a credit bonus equal to 15% of the deposit amount.

d. During the promotion period, the maximum credit bonus amount per eligible client is capped at USD 20,000 (or equivalent).

e. Credit bonus calculation example:

   i. Client A makes a first deposit of USD 10,000 and receives a credit bonus of USD 1,850, calculated as follows: (1,000 × 0.5) + (9,000 × 0.15) = 500 + 1,350 = 1,850

   ii. If the client then makes a further deposit of USD 200, they receive an additional 200 × 0.15 = USD 30

f. The credit bonus will be credited to your trading account within 1 business day after your deposit has been verified.

g. The credit bonus under this promotion may be used for trading and to help offset losses. Any trading losses will first be deducted from the principal in your account balance, while any profits generated using the bonus may be withdrawn through the standard withdrawal process.

h. Internal transfers, balance or cash adjustments, introducer/affiliate rebates, or any type of commission will not be considered a new deposit and will not be eligible for a credit bonus.

i. The credit bonus cannot be transferred to another person, transferred to another account under the same name, or exchanged for other promotions or services.

j. The credit bonus will be forfeited if your account equity falls below the credit bonus amount held in your account, or in cases involving credit-only trading. This may result in the forced liquidation of all open positions in your account.

k. At the end of the trading period, the platform will carry out settlement, distribution, and cancellation of credit bonuses for all participating clients. VT Markets will not provide separate notice to clients when this settlement occurs.

5、 Withdrawal Rules:

a. During the promotion period, withdrawals of profit are not affected in any way.

b. Accounts holding a credit bonus cannot perform transfers to another account under the same name.

c. If you choose to withdraw your original deposit, the system will deduct part or all the credit bonus held in your account.

d. Example of credit bonus deduction calculation:

   i. Client A has an account balance of USD 10,000 and holds a credit bonus of USD 1,500. The client wishes to withdraw USD 4,000.

   ii. Is (Account Balance – Withdrawal Amount) ⩾ (Credit Bonus / 15%)?

   iii. If YES: no deduction is applied.

   iv. If NO: the corresponding portion of the credit bonus is deducted.

   v. 10,000 – 4,000 ⩾ 1,500 / 15%

   vi. 6,000 ⩾ 10,000 → NO

   vii. Therefore, a deduction of USD 600 applies, calculated as:

   viii. Credit Bonus Deduction = 1,500 – (10,000 – 4,000) × 15% = 1,500 – 900 = 600

6、 Promotion Combinability Rules: This promotion may be combined with the following promotions, with deposit amounts counted jointly across activities:

   a. Trading Deposit Gift Redemption Promotion
   b. Refer-a-Friend Promotion
